INDEX.

A

Aberdeenſhire, quarterly reports from, 106, 252, 393, 536.

Agricultural intelligence, 99, 242, 383, 519.

Agricultural publications, review of—Practical Agriculture, or a complete ſyſtem of modern huſbandry, with the methods of planting and management of live ſtock, by Dr Dickſon, 221.

Agriculture, account of an accidental improvement in, 180.—On the actual ſtate of, in Ayrſhire, 311.—In Tweedale, 325.—In the Highlands, curſory remarks on the preſent ſtate of, 500.

Annandale, quarterly reports from, 103, 387, 537.

Arator, letter from on flax huſbandry, 57.

Argyleſhire, quarterly report from, 105.

Ayr, letter of intelligence from a gentleman in, 522.

Ayrſhire, diſſertation on the huſbandry of, 311.—Objection to the cultivation of beans there, 315.—Turnips not much cultivated, ibid.

B

Banffſhire, quarterly reports from, 105, 389, 522.

Berwickſhire, quarterly reports from, 112, 255, 395, 534.

Botany, advantages attending the farmer who is acquainted with the ſcience of, 159.

Buchan, on the huſbandry of, 344.—Quarterly report from, 527.

Butter, recipe for ſalting, 60.

C

Caithneſs, letter from a gentleman who lately viſited that county, 385.—Hints regarding the beſt rotation of crops in the county of, communicated by Sir John Sinclair, Bart. 417.—Obſervations thereon by Mr Archibald Dudgeon, 418.—Do. by Mr Middleton, 420.

Caledonian inſurance company, letter from Mr Braidwood manager of, on the inſurance of farm ſtock, 379.

Campbell, Mr, letter from on the cultivation of potatoes, 284, and of turnips, 411.

Canterbury, ſtate of markets at, 126.—Letter of intelligence from, 264.

Carrick, letters of intelligence from, 113, 250, 387.

Cart-wheels, on the conſtruction of, with two figures, 97.

Cheeſe, mode of manufacturing it in Ayrſhire, 318.

Clackmannanſhire ploughing match, particulars of, 247.

Corn-markets, inquiry into the nature and fluctuation of, 22.—Conductor's note thereon, 37.—Remarks on the above inquiry, 453.—Note by the Conductor, 464.

Corn ſtacks, recipe for keeping them clear of rats and mice, 452.

Coventry, Dr, obſervations on his pamphlet on live ſtock by Mr Sitwell, 5.

Cows, compariſon on feeding them with hay and oatſtraw, 300.—Management of thoſe in Ayrſhire deſcribed, 319.

Cropping, mode of adopted in Eaſt Kent, 46.

Culſamond, true ſtate of the judicial proceedings betwixt the heritors and miniſter of the pariſh of, 187.

Cumberland, letters from a gentleman in county of, 407, 543.

Curl in potatoes, cauſes of and cure, 150.

D

Dairy, account of the management of in Ayrſhire, 318.—Breed of milch cows deſcribed, 319.

Dempſter, George, Eſq. dedication to him of this volume of the magazine, 1.

Diſtillery laws, remarks on the Roſsſhire reſolutions concerning them, 174.

Diſtilleries Lowland and Highland, letter concerning from Sir Geo. Mackenzie, Bart. 375.—His ſtatements diſproved, 377.

Dudgeon, Thomas, Eſq. Eſſay by him on the cultivation of kelp, 40.

Dudgeon, Mr Archibald, letter from on the cultivation of wheat in the northern diſtricts, 418.

Dumbartonſhire, quarterly reports from, 117, 391, 539.

Dumfrieſſhire, quarterly reports from, 115, 256, 388, 531.—Remarks on the huſbandry of, 309.

INDEX.

A

Aberdeenſhire, quarterly reports from, 106, 252, 393, 536.

Agricultural intelligence, 99, 242, 383, 519.

Agricultural publications, review of—Practical Agriculture, or a complete ſyſtem of modern huſbandry, with the methods of planting and management of live ſtock, by Dr Dickſon, 221.

Agriculture, account of an accidental improvement in, 180.—On the actual ſtate of, in Ayrſhire, 311.—In Tweedale, 325.—In the Highlands, curſory remarks on the preſent ſtate of, 500.

Annandale, quarterly reports from, 103, 387, 537.

Arator, letter from on flax huſbandry, 57.

Argyleſhire, quarterly report from, 105.

Ayr, letter of intelligence from a gentleman in, 522.

Ayrſhire, diſſertation on the huſbandry of, 311.—Objection to the cultivation of beans there, 315.—Turnips not much cultivated, ibid.

B

Banffſhire, quarterly reports from, 105, 389, 522.

Berwickſhire, quarterly reports from, 112, 255, 395, 534.

Botany, advantages attending the farmer who is acquainted with the ſcience of, 159.

Buchan, on the huſbandry of, 344.—Quarterly report from, 527.

Butter, recipe for ſalting, 60.

C

Caithneſs, letter from a gentleman who lately viſited that county, 385.—Hints regarding the beſt rotation of crops in the county of, communicated by Sir John Sinclair, Bart. 417.—Obſervations thereon by Mr Archibald Dudgeon, 418.—Do. by Mr Middleton, 420.

Caledonian inſurance company, letter from Mr Braidwood manager of, on the inſurance of farm ſtock, 379.

Campbell, Mr, letter from on the cultivation of potatoes, 284, and of turnips, 411.

Canterbury, ſtate of markets at, 126.—Letter of intelligence from, 264.

Carrick, letters of intelligence from, 113, 250, 387.

Cart-wheels, on the conſtruction of, with two figures, 97.

Cheeſe, mode of manufacturing it in Ayrſhire, 318.

Clackmannanſhire ploughing match, particulars of, 247.

Corn-markets, inquiry into the nature and fluctuation of, 22.—Conductor's note thereon, 37.—Remarks on the above inquiry, 453.—Note by the Conductor, 464.

Corn ſtacks, recipe for keeping them clear of rats and mice, 452.

Coventry, Dr, obſervations on his pamphlet on live ſtock by Mr Sitwell, 5.

Cows, compariſon on feeding them with hay and oatſtraw, 300.—Management of thoſe in Ayrſhire deſcribed, 319.

Cropping, mode of adopted in Eaſt Kent, 46.

Culſamond, true ſtate of the judicial proceedings betwixt the heritors and miniſter of the pariſh of, 187.

Cumberland, letters from a gentleman in county of, 407, 543.

Curl in potatoes, cauſes of and cure, 150.

D

Dairy, account of the management of in Ayrſhire, 318.—Breed of milch cows deſcribed, 319.

Dempſter, George, Eſq. dedication to him of this volume of the magazine, 1.

Diſtillery laws, remarks on the Roſsſhire reſolutions concerning them, 174.

Diſtilleries Lowland and Highland, letter concerning from Sir Geo. Mackenzie, Bart. 375.—His ſtatements diſproved, 377.

Dudgeon, Thomas, Eſq. Eſſay by him on the cultivation of kelp, 40.

Dudgeon, Mr Archibald, letter from on the cultivation of wheat in the northern diſtricts, 418.

Dumbartonſhire, quarterly reports from, 117, 391, 539.

Dumfrieſſhire, quarterly reports from, 115, 256, 388, 531.—Remarks on the huſbandry of, 309.

E

East Lothian fiars for 1806, list of, 143.
Eddlestone club, essay given in to on thirlage, 9.
England, agricultural intelligence respecting, 262, 402, 541.
Essex, quarterly report from, 124.
Evening schools, strictures on the proposal for instituting them for farm servants, 338.—The plan thought unnecessary, ibid.

F

Falkirk, letters of intelligence from, 110, 257, 394, 524.
Farm offices, description of a suite of for a farm of 300 acres, adapted to turnip husbandry, with plate, 271.
Farm-servants, strictures on the proposal of instituting evening schools for the instruction of, 338.
Farm stock, plan by the Caledonian insurance company for insurance of, 379.
Fences, brief statement of a law process concerning them, 215.—Opinion of the Conductor thereon, 218.—The lease betwixt parties considered to be the alone rule of ascertaining the validity of every claim advanced by the one against the other, because there is no common law on the subject, 219.
Fiars, East Lothian, for 1806, with a state of the proof taken to ascertain them, 143.
Fifeshire, quarterly reports from, 113, 258, 401, 538.
Flax husbandry, letter on, to Andrew Wight, Esq. 58.
Forfarshire, quarterly reports from, 111, 254, 397, 533.
France, on the husbandry of, with observations on the former condition of its cultivators, 303.
Free martins, hints concerning, 466.

G

Galloway cattle, some particulars of, 78.—On the husbandry of, 348. Comparative view of the value of land in that district and in the county of Haddington, 349.—Replication by Arator, 353. Note by Conductor, 358.
Glasgow, letters of intelligence from, 116, 253, 396, 535.
Green crops and wheat, considered as the articles that yield the greatest profit to the farmer, 213.—Not to be obtained without plenty of dung, 214.
Grenville, Lord, the benefits resulting from his bill relative to the administration of civil justice in Scotland illustrated, 180.—The utility of trial by [illegible] in civil cases described, 244.

Haddington, letter of intelligence from, [illegible] work, how conducted by Mr Jamieson at Barnhill, 369.
Highland husbandry, strictures on, 169.
Highlands of Scotland, cursory remarks on the present state of agriculture and rural economy in, 500.
Holderness Agricultural Society, questions discussed at the several meetings of, 182.
Horses, a new edition of language to recommended to, 51.
Husbandry, particulars respecting that of East Kent, 46.—Opinion of the Conductor thereon, 50.—Of Wigtonshire, description of, 61.—Of Roxburghshire, on the ancient state of, 166.—Thirders and teinders, a class of husbandmen agreeing in many particulars to that of the metayers in France, formerly prevalent in that county, ib.—Roup roll of one of these tenants in 1748, 167.—Of France, observations on the past and present state of, 303.—Remarks on that of Dumfries and Ayrshires, 309.—Dissertation on that of Ayrshire, 311.—Of Buchan, 344.—Of Galloway, 348.—Of Perthshire, 425.

I

Jamieson, Mr, his farm at Barnhill described, 87.—Account of his thrashing machine, 202.—Of his turnip husbandry, 206.—Advice by, to a young farmer, 474.
Implements, description of those used in the improved culture of potatoes, 285.—Of turnips, 414.
Improvements, Scottish, beneficial consequences of them to the public, 154.—Various recent ones pointed out, and the Farmer's Magazine characterized as the best medium for conveying a particular description of, 155.
Intelligence, Agricultural, leading articles of, 99, 242, 383, 519.—Literary, concerning the first volume of Chalmers's Caledonia, 381.—The Code of Health and Longevity, by Sir John Sinclair, Bart. ibid.—A View of the Mineralogy, Agriculture, &c. of the Island of Arran, 382.—Prize Essays and Transactions of the Highland Society of Scotland, ib.—The Shepherd's Guide, &c. ib.

Inglis,

Ingram, Mr, letter from on the cause and cure of ... in potatoes, 150.
Inverneſſhire, quarterly reports from, 119, 521.—Eſſay on the paſt and preſent ſtate of husbandry in, 461.—Letters of intelligence from, 249, 3..
Ireland, view of the preſent ſtate of the population and husbandry of Wexford, 135.

K

Keith, Dr, letter from on the experiments to aſcertain the value of Engliſh and Scotch barley and bigg when malted, 360.—Obſervations by him on the papers preſented to the Houſe of Commons concerning theſe experiments, 476.
Kelp, Eſſay on the cultivation of, 40.
Kent, letters of intelligence from, 126, 547.
Kentiſh huſbandry, ſome particulars reſpecting, 46.
Kitchen garden, on the utility of a farmer underſtanding the proper cultivation of, 159.
Kincardineſhire, quarterly report from, 116.

L

Labour, remarks on the high rate of, 52.—Reply, 339.
Langholm, letters of intelligence from, 118, 396.
Language, a new edition of to horſes, recommended, 51.
Lanarkſhire Upper Ward, quarterly report from, 249.
Letters from a young farmer to his father, 88.
Letter on the paſt and preſent ſtate of Ireland, 135.—Note thereon by the Conductor, 142.
Lime, information requested concerning the application of, 168.
Lincolnſhire, letters of intelligence from, 122, 263, 406.
Lincolnſhire Fens, application to the Right Honourable Sir Joſeph Banks, chairman of the meetings for draining theſe fens, with his reply thereto, 265.
Live ſtock, obſervations on, by Mr Sitwell, 5.
London, letters of intelligence from, 129, 268, 407, 544.
London markets, ſtates of, 129, 269, 408.
Lothian, Mid, quarterly reports from, 108, 259, 399, 529.
Lothian, Eaſt, quarterly reports from, 121, 261, 402, 539.
Lynn, letter of intelligence from, 127.

M

Mackenzie, Sir George, Bart. letter from, on the diſtilleries of the Lowlands and Highlands, 375.—Errors therein pointed out, 377.
Mackenzie, Mr, letter from, on the cultivation of waſte lands, 422.
Malt, remarks by Dr Skene Keith, on the experiments by Drs Hope, Coventry and Thompſon, to aſcertain the value of Engliſh and Scotch Barley and Bigg, when uſed for, 360.—Obſervations on their report to the Houſe of Commons, 476.
Manure, conſidered as the magic wand of the farmer, 214.
Markets, ſtate of in London, 129, 269, 408.
Markets, ſtate of thoſe in Glaſgow, 116, 253, 397.
Middleton, George, Eſq; letter from, on the beſt rotation of crops in Caithneſs, 420.
Moray ſhire, quarterly reports from, 119, 260, 526.

N

Norfolk, quarterly reports from, 124, 263, 403, 542.
Northumberland, quarterly reports from, 128, 262, 405, 546.
Notices to correſpondents, 134, 270, 410, 547.

O

Oats, benefit of harrowing them when ſeveral inches above the ground, 180.
Obituary—Account of General Fletcher Campbell, 131.—Of William Law, Eſq., 133.—Of Alexander Fraſer, Eſq., ib.

P

Perthſhire, quarterly reports from, 253, 392, 533.
Perthſhire, general deſcription of the paſt and preſent ſtate of huſbandry in, 425.—Thraſhing machines numerous in that county, 440.—Reaſon aſſigned that they were firſt invented there, ib.—Fanners hardly known fifty years ago, 441.—Their introduction oppoſed by a Reverend Clergyman, 442.—Deſcription of farm ſteadings, 443.
Plough, or Paring Hoe, directions concerning, 290.
Ploughing Matches, eſſay on, by Leonidas, 151.—Note thereon by conductor, 154.
Ploughing Match in Clackmannanſhire, account of, 247.

Potatoes, on the cultivation of, with figures of the implements uſed therein, 284.—On the preſervation of, 451.—Excellent food for ſheep, ib.

Potatoes, the cauſe of curl in, 150.

Population—Obſervation on Dr Paley's eſſay on that ſubject, 33.—Proviſions do not increaſe in the ſame ratio with population, 34.

Premiums, liſt of offered, by Mr Sitwell at his ſheep ſhow, 103.—by the Smithfield club, 301.

Property tax—Remarks on its ſeverity as affecting farmers, 101.—Attempts to obtain relief from, 384.

Proviſions, remarks on the prices of, 52.—Reply thereto, 339.

Q

Queſtions diſcuſſed by the Holderneſs Agricultural Society from 2d December 1795 to 3d December 1804 incluſive, liſt of, 182.

R

Rats and Mice, recipe for killing, 452.

Regiſter—Dates of ſowing and ſhearing from 1773 to 1806 in Lanark and Peebleſhires, 332.

Rent, remarks on the high rate of, 52.—Reply thereto, 336.

Roſsſhire, Reſolutions of the gentlemen of that county reſpecting the diſtillery laws, 177.

Roſsſhire, quarterly reports from, 109, 401, 527.

Roxburghſhire, on the ancient huſbandry of, 166.

S

Scotland, agricultural intelligence reſpecting, 103, 247, 385, 521.

Scottiſh improvements—On the utility of noticing them, 154.

Selkirk, quarterly reports from, 104, 521.

Sheep, on the ſmearing of, reply to A. S. 93.

Sheep, account of the method of breeding and feeding that animal in Ayrſhire, 322.

Sinclair, Sir John, Bart. inquiry into the nature and fluctuation of the corn trade, addreſſed to, 22.

Sinclair, Sir John, Bart. hints by, regarding the proper rotation of crops in the county of Caithneſs, 417.

Sitwell, Francis, Eſq., reply to his obſervation on Dr Coventry's pamphlet on live ſtock, by a Yorkſhire farmer, 342.

Sitwell, Francis, Eſq., obſervations by him on Dr Coventry's pamphlet on live ſtock, 5.—Premiums offered at his ſheep ſhow, 103.

Skene Keith, Dr, letter from on the experiments to aſcertain the value of Engliſh and Scotch Barley and Bigg when malted, 360.—Obſervations by him on the papers preſented to the Houſe of Commons on that ſubject, 476.

Smart, John, information requeſted by him as to the means of counteracting the pernicious effects of certain ſheep paſtures, 149.

Smearing of ſheep, advantages of, pointed out, 94.

Smithfield Club, account of, and the proceedings at laſt Chriſtmas ſhow, 189.—Premiums given by them, and to whom, 193, et ſeq.—New members balloted, 201.—Premiums offered for 1807, 301

Smut of Wheat, queries relative to, 50.

Soils, of a thin nature, the moſt proper management of deſcribed, 80.

Soiling, advantages thereof pointed out, and objections to the practice anſwered, 209.

Sparrows, Query concerning the beſt way of deſtroying them, 452.

Spring Wheat, mode of cultivating it explained, 100.

Stirlingſhire, (Weſt), quarterly reports from, 250, 398, 528.

T

Thirlage Act, Eſſay on, given in to Edleſtone club, 9.—Note thereon by the Conductor, 19.—additional information on thirlage, 20.—Memorial on the queſtion whether a farmer is liable to dry multures when he purchaſes wheat bread, with a legal opinion thereon, 21.

Thraſhing Machine—Deſcription of one lately invented in Perthſhire, 465.—Of a ſcutching kind moved by water, which may be erected for ten pounds, ib.—thraſhes from three to four bolls of oats per hour, 466.

Tour through the Highland and Weſtern Diſtricts, made in May and June 1807, 500.

Trees, Hints anent planting, 181.

Trenching Plough, information concerning, requeſted, 149.

Turnip Huſbandry—Plan and deſcription of farm offices adapted to 300 acres of ground under that culture, 271.

Turnip

Turnip Husbandry, Essay on, by the Rev. Mr Campbell, with figures of some implements used in cultivating that root, 411.
Tweeddale, on the progressive improvement of agriculture in, 325.
Tweeddale, quarterly reports from, 107, 249, 390.

W

Wakefield, letters of intelligence from a farmer in the neighbourhood of, 402, 545.
Wales, letters of intelligence from, 130, 406, 542.
Waste Lands, hints respecting the culture of, 422.
Wexford, Ireland, view of the ancient state and settlement of the English in the county of, 135.
Weston, Richard, Esq., Fragment by him on the utility of a farmer understanding the proper cultivation of a kitchen garden, 159.—A short account of that gentleman, and a list of the books published by him, 160.
Wheat, queries relative to smut of, 50.
Wheat, quantity of, deponed to before the Sheriff of Haddington in the process for ascertaining the fiars in 1806, 143.—Comparative view betwixt and the proof taken in the two preceding years, 146.
Wheat, Inquiries whether that grain can be profitably cultivated in Caithness and other northern districts of Scotland, 417.
Whitbread, Samuel, Esq., the utility of his bill for instituting parochial schools in England pointed out, 246.
Wight, Andrew, Esq., letter to him on flax husbandry, 58.
Wigtonshire, Essay on the husbandry of, 61.
Wigtonshire, quarterly reports from, 251, 390, 528.
Wigtonshire, thoughts on the value of land in, 348.—Considered as greatly inferior to that of similar soils in the county of Haddington, 349.—This inferiority alleged by Arator to be greatly exaggerated, 353.
Wigtonshire Farming Society—Note by the Conductor on certain resolutions published by them in the newspapers, 358.
Wool, clothing, account of sales made at Dublin, Dec. 1806, 186.—Prices obtained that year by General Robertson of Lude in Perthshire, ib.

Y

Yorkshire, letters of intelligence from a farmer in, 123.
Yorkshire, East Riding, letters of intelligence from, 125, 406, 544.
Yorkshire, quarterly reports from, 127, 269, 408, 541.
Young Farmer, letters from to his father, 88, 201, 366, 467.

END OF VOLUME EIGHTH.

D. Willison, Printer, Edinburgh.